evolutionary history in theological perspective exploring the scientific story of the cosmos develops a new theological interpretation of evolutionary history exploring both secular and theological interpretations of evolutionary history this new interpretation hinges on the similarities between individual redemption and the eschatological story of cosmic redemption as mediated by the holy spirit throughout evolutionary history this new lens is then applied to relevant questions raised by the evolutionary process especially suffering and helps overcome the current shortcomings of contemporary interpretations of evolutionary history we live in a time of religious warfare not just between different religions but also between those with differing versions of the same faith this religious distrust and political conflict may be the worst in american history since the civil war speaking as a progressive conservative biblical scholar robert vande kappelle uses a four stage model of faith development to rethink core christian doctrines starting with current events and a discussion on the role of religion this book examines how inadequate faith development makes people of faith susceptible to misinformation conspiracy thinking and even to cultic mindsets people of faith do not choose to believe a lie they all want to believe what is true hence it is surprising that in the realm of religion so many people are willing to rely upon untested and even highly disputed beliefs beliefs most received as children unfortunately many of these teachings are based upon ancient hopes and fears rather than upon factual historical information taken literally dualistic teachings concerning heaven and hell sin and salvation good and evil and apocalyptic beliefs such as the end times and the imminent return of christ to earth are questionable not only because they are beyond historical and scientific verification but also because they can be misused by authoritarian leaders to control and mislead devout individuals thankfully there is a way to outgrow cultic christianity the path to spiritual maturity comes by restoring the role of religion a form of spirituality discovered not by addition but by a process of subtraction outgrowing cultic christianity is useful for individual or group study each chapter concludes with questions suitable for discussion or reflection many believers neglect to study the old testament because they find it confusing or because they assume that it is less important to the christian faith than the new testament we cannot understand jesus or his gospel without a proper grounding in the old testament scriptures thus we need to read and study the whole counsel of god let us not neglect the study of either testament unique among all books ever written the bible accurately foretells specific events in detail many years sometimes centuries before they occur approximately 2 500 prophecies appear in the pages of the bible about 2 000 of which already have been fulfilled to the letter no errors the remaining 500 or so reach into the future and may be seen unfolding as days go by since the probability of any one of these prophecies having been fulfilled by chance averages less than one in ten figured very conservatively and since the prophecies are for the most part independent of one another the odds for all these prophecies having been fulfilled by chance without error is less than one in 102000 that is 1 with 2 000 zeros written after it god is not the only one however who uses forecasts of future events to get people s attention satan does too through clairvoyants such as jeanne dixon and edgar cayce mediums spiritists and others come remarkable predictions though rarely with more than about 60 percent accuracy never with total accuracy messages from satan furthermore fail to match the details of bible prophecies nor do they include a call to repentance the acid test for identifying a prophet of god is recorded by moses in deuteronomy 18 21 22 according to this bible passage and others god s prophets as distinct from satan s spokesmen are 100 percent accurate in their predictions there is no room for error the new testament indicates that what happened at the cross and on it was what the prophets had predicted would happen long before details of jesus life and death were written in divine prophecy hundreds of years before he was born in bethlehem throughout the gospels this amazing truth is emphasized as jesus and his apostles left the upper room for the garden of gethsemane he said to them you will all fall away because it is written i will strike down the shepherd and the sheep shall be scattered mark 14

27 after judas betrayal jesus rebuked peter for drawing his sword and cutting off the ear of malchus and said to him put your sword back into its place how then will the scriptures be fulfilled which say that it must happen this way matthew 26 52 54 on the cross jesus waited until he saw that all things had already been accomplished before he uttered his only physical request i am thirsty john 19 28 later the spear was thrust into jesus side and blood and water came out we read for these things came to pass to fulfill the scripture not a bone of him shall be broken and again another scripture says they shall look on him whom they pierced john 19 36 37 the angel who was at the tomb on the morning of the resurrection said remember how he spoke to you while he was still in galilee saying that the son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and the third day rises again luke 24 6 7 when jesus met with the apostles and disciples sunday evening the same day he arose from the dead he said to them these are my words which i spoke to you while i was still with you that all things which are written about me in the law of moses and the prophets and the psalms must be fulfilled thus it is written that the christ would suffer and rise again from the dead the third day and that repentance for forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in his name to all the nations beginning from jerusalem luke 24 44 47 in jesus affirmation to those sunday night witnesses he referred to all three divisions of the hebrew old testament the law of moses the prophets and the psalms as he described the prophecies that had been fulfilled in him it has been said that if one reads any part of the bible and does not see jesus in it he should go back and reread it for he has missed something very important in peter s first gospel sermon on the day of pentecost he declared that jesus had been delivered into the hands of godless men to be put to death by the predetermined plan and foreknowledge of god acts 2 23 in his second sermon in acts peter covered in one sweeping sentence the prophecies of the whole old testament saying that jesus sufferings on the cross fulfilled all that had been prophesied but the things which god announced beforehand by the mouth of all the prophets that his christ would suffer he has thus fulfilled acts 3 18 will herberg author of judaism and modern man and protestant catholic jew and recently retired professor of philosophy and culture at drew is a committed jew who has taught christians the import of their faith a biblical theologian who has commented trenchantly on contemporary affairs and a prophetic radical who has been a harbinger of neo conservatism bernhard anderson with herberg s cooperation has collected essays dating from 1943 to 1972 that exhibit the unique range of his thinking and concerns much influenced by franz rosenzweig and reinhold niebuhr he is a champion of biblical faith a faith rooted in historical events and to be enacted in the concrete historical present from this solid vantage he can see the substantial unity of judaism and christianity and their linked but distinct vocations he can discern the challenge posed by the secularization of christian faith that american civil religion and marxism represent and he can affirm the radical relativity of all political programs and movements some pieces are quite academic but most are very accessible and still intellectually fresh kirkus review rather than interpreting the olympics as primarily a sporting event of international or national significance this book understands the games as a civic project for the host city that serves as a catalyst for a variety of urban interests over a period of many years from the bidding phase through the event itself traditional olympic studies have tended to examine the games from an outsider s perspective or as something experienced through the print media or television in contrast the focus presented here is on the dynamics within the host city understood as a community of interacting individuals who encounter the games in a variety of ways through support opposition or even indifference but who have a profound influence on the outcome of the games as actors and players in the olympics as a drama adopting a symbolic interactionist approach the book offers a new interpretive model through which to understand the olympic games by exploring the relationship between the games and residents of the host city key analytical concepts such as framing dramaturgy the public realm and the symbolic field are introduced and illustrated through empirical research from the vancouver 2010 winter games and it is shown how the social media and shifts in public opinion reflected interaction effects within the city by filling a clear lacuna in the olympic studies canon this book is important reading for anybody with an interest in the sociology of sport urban studies event studies or urban sociology this handbook has been prepared especially for advanced bible class work but it is hoped that it may also be found useful to the pastor and to the general bible student
